Newsreader: The South East is to get another satellite city. Logan Council plans to make Springwood a high-rise commercial hub within 20 years. The $300 million scheme includes a cultural precinct, two new town squares and a restaurant strip similar to Brisbane's park Road.

Cr John Grant: "We've looked at the population expectations and we've said Springwood is the premier commercial centre of Logan and this sets the scene for it to continue to grow."

Newsreader: Work will start next year with the redevelopment of Springwood Park.
