

Have you been looking for an opportunity to help others?
Are you looking to gain new skills or meet new people?

Then volunteering for Logan City Council
Libraries and Creative Industries Branch may be for you!

Volunteering opportunities:

Adult Literacy Volunteers

Volunteers trained in literacy skills are partnered with people in the community who need to improve their reading, writing or speaking skills. These sessions are one-on-one and run within a library during opening hours. No experience is necessary, but potential volunteers must be willing to undertake adult literacy training organised by Logan City Council Libraries. A high level of commitment to the position is required.

Approximately 2-3 hours per week.

After-School Activities Volunteers

Volunteers assist library staff in the facilitation of after school activity programs (e.g. games, craft, chess) for both primary and secondary students at Beenleigh Library during school terms.

Approximately 2 hours per week.

Digital Home Library Volunteers

Volunteers are required to assist Home Library clients in the Logan Community who are unable to attend Technology classes offered at library branches:

- instructing clients on how to access the uploaded resources and how to request titles for future loan
- building clients' skills in the use of the internet and/or their personal computer or other device

Volunteers must have their own transport.

Approximately 1 hour per session.

Digital Literacy Volunteers

Volunteers assist seniors at the computer kiosk at Logan North Library. Volunteers must possess good computer/internet skills to work one-on-one with seniors wishing to become more proficient in computer and internet usage.

Approximately 2 hours per week.

English Conversation Volunteers

Volunteers assist library staff in the building of confidence of clients from non-English speaking backgrounds in speaking and understanding English in a group setting. Classes are held at Beenleigh, Logan Central and Logan West and women's only classes are held at Logan Central and Marsden. No experience is necessary but volunteers are encouraged to undertake adult literacy training organised by Logan City Council Libraries. Prior ESL experience is desirable.

Approximately 1-2 hours per week.

VOLUNTEERING OPPORTUNITIES

Home Library Volunteers

Volunteers collect pre-selected books from their nominated library and deliver them to assigned clients in Logan who find it difficult to visit the library. These Home Library deliveries could be to clients in private homes, aged care facilities, nursing homes or retirement villages. Volunteers must have their own transport.

Approximately 2-3 hours per month.

Homework Help Volunteers

Volunteers, overseen by a library staff member, provide assistance to school students in Beenleigh, Logan Central, Logan West and Marsden libraries after school. A background in teaching, or study towards becoming a teacher is highly desirable.

Approximately 1-2 hours per week.

Mayes Cottage Volunteers

Volunteers are rostered shifts (10.00am -1.00pm or 1.00pm - 4.00pm) to cover the Mayes Cottage opening hours each Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Volunteers deliver guided tours for visitors to the historical house and site, as well as providing general information about the Mayes family who resided there. An interest in local history is desirable.

Approximately 3 hours per week/fortnight.

Page Turners Volunteers

Page Turners is a reading program held in Beenleigh, Logan Central and Marsden libraries after school for school aged children from prep to grade 5. Our volunteers, overseen by a library staff member, listen to children read, as well as read to children. It is a one-on-one personalised service, recognising that all children have different reading needs.

Approximately one hour per week.

Do you have a skill not listed above that you feel Logan City Council Libraries and Creative Industries Branch could benefit from?

Let us know!

We would love to hear from you!

Other things you need to know:

- Volunteer positions do not include regular tasks undertaken by paid employees within the library
- Please note Logan City Council Libraries is currently experiencing a high level of interest for volunteering positions. A number of volunteering programs are currently at or near capacity. Logan City Council Libraries encourages submission of applications, however please note that you may be placed on a waiting list.

Please discuss your volunteering interest with the Regional/Branch or Digital Services Librarian at your closest
Logan City Council Library

#11086186