

St Marks Anglican Cemetery, Daisy Hill (Formerly Slacks Creek)

St Mark's cemetery dates back to 1883 when the donors of the land, the Gomersalls were buried here. The church committee was formed in 1900 and the church was built in 1901. Many members of the original parish council are buried on the site including Thomas White, Thomas Usher, Robert Gomersall, Frederick Armstrong and William Winnett. A new church was built in 1977 to accommodate the growing congregation. The old church and cemetery were heritage listed at the time of their centenary in 2001.
