

Domestic Animal Keeping Fact Sheet

ALPACAS AND LLAMAS

Local Law No. 4 (Animal Management) 2002 and Subordinate Local Law No. 4.1 (Animal Management) 2002 provide residents with consistent rules and recognise our urban, rural and semi-rural lifestyles.

Under Logan City Council's animal keeping laws, the allowable number of alpacas and/or llamas varies, depending on the size of your property.

Property size (square metres)	Number of animals permitted
Up to 2,000	0
2,001 to 4,000	2 without Logan City Council approval
4,001 to 40,000 (without Logan City Council approval)	Up to 20 at a density of two animals per 4,000 square metres
4,001 to 40,000 (with Logan City Council approval)	Up to 20 at a density of more than two animals per 4,000 square metres

Infant animals are not counted until the animals are 12 months old or weaned.

Approvals

To apply for an approval or download an application form, visit www.logan.qld.gov.au or phone 3412 5397.

Development Approvals

Assessment is required under Council's planning scheme to keep more than the approved numbers, as this is considered a development activity.

Licensing requirements may also exist under Logan's Licensing Local Law or state law.

Enclosure requirements

Enclosures must be maintained in a clean and tidy condition at all times and be constructed to prevent the animal/s from escaping.

Enclosures must not be:

- within 10 metres of a neighbouring dwelling
- within 10 metres of any premises operated for the purposes of the manufacture, preparation, storage or sale of food for human consumption and
- must be at least two metres from the boundary of the property.

General requirements

(To be read in conjunction with Logan City Council Subordinate Local Law 4.1)

The owner and keeper of the animal/s must ensure that keeping the alpaca or llama does not result in:

- animal faeces build up
- breeding or harbouring of flies or vermin
- damage to property
- harm to human health or safety or personal injury
- nuisance
- significant disturbance, inconvenience or annoyance to a person's enjoyment of their place of residence
