

What's in it for you? Benefits of being involved

Students

- Immersive experiences that are exciting and gain great results
- Helps students maintain a positive attitude in learning
- Enhances collaboration in the classroom
- Allows students to experiment, explore and innovate
- Allows students to experiment, iterate and take risks
- Focuses on real world solutions, new and emerging technologies
- Explores the links between the topics they are learning and the real world – what they are working on matters and will help the students going forward with their career pathways
- Development of employable skills

Educators

- Opportunities for networking
- Professional development opportunities
- Amplifies and aligns with curriculum work
- Allows students to discover new skillsets
- Provides access to Council staff and community leaders/organisations
- Creates excitement among students and additional topics for discussion in class
- Allows for students to be deeply engaged in their learning
- Allows students to experiment, iterate and take risks

Council

- Encourages collaboration between students and Council staff
- Invites new, fresh ideas and an innovative way of working
- Solves real life problems
- A chance to educate young people about different areas of Council and how they work
- Encourages collaboration between Council and educational institutions
- Networking opportunities

The Logan community

- Developing a passion for local issues and a love of the city in young people
- Focus on solving real world challenges engenders a drive to create a better Logan in the future
- New forms of community engagement
- Shows the immense talent
- Focuses on real world solutions, new and emerging technologies
- Develops civic pride
- Fosters responsible global citizenship in future generations