Ben Dobbin TV Personality

Ben “Dobbo” Dobbin is one of Australia’s most loved media personalities. Ben started his career as a jackaroo in Brunette Downs and it was there where he fell in love with the land and rural Australia; it has now become his greatest passion. Dobbo spent the next 15 years as a Stock and Station Agent. In 2010 he used his passion and knowledge to start a successful meat wholesale business; Rangeland Quality Meats.

In 2011, during the Queensland Flood Appeal Dobbo’s childhood friend, Ben Fordham, with whom he went to boarding school in Sydney, travelled to regional Queensland to interview flood-affected communities which included a live television interview with his best friend (‘my mate Dobbo’). Dobbo stole the show and left viewers wanting more which led to appearances on The Footy Show and 60 Minutes as well as his own segment The Man on the Land on Sydney’s 2GB. Soon after, he joined the Triple M family with the team on Dead Set Legends and now hosts The Rush Hour.

GUEST SPEAKER

Jeff ‘The Hornet’ Horn WBO Welterweight Champion

Jeff ‘The Hornet’

Horn, a renowned former WBO welterweight champion, rose to boxing stardom in 2008 under trainer Glenn Rushton’s guidance. His amateur career peaked at the 2012 Olympics, where he reached the quarterfinals in the light-welterweight division, becoming Australia’s most successful Olympic boxer in two decades.

Although he narrowly missed an Olympic medal, Horn’s determination led to a bronze at the London Test Event and a remarkable professional career marked by victories against top opponents.

Upon retiring in 2023, Horn pursued a Bachelor of Education and worked as a PE teacher. He channelled his passion into teaching anti-bullying tactics in Queensland schools, focusing on safeguarding children from bullying. For Horn, this mission represents his next fight, demonstrating his commitment to the well-being and safety of the kids in his region.
