Frequently Asked Questions

Who may submit a plaque application for a deceased person buried at a Council Cemetery?

Any person may submit a plaque application for a deceased person buried at a Council Cemetery.

Is there an order of priority where more than one plaque application is received by Council?

When LCC assess a plaque application, the following order of priority is considered:

1. If the burial right has not yet been exercised, the burial right owner
2. If the burial right has been exercised:
 - The executor appointed under the deceased person's will; or
 - Where a person has died interstate, the administrator of a deceased person's estate appointed by the Court.
3. If the burial right holder, executor or administrator as appropriate has granted their permission to another person to make the application, the person who has been granted the permission.
