Conditions of Service

By submitting this request for an additional bin, you acknowledge the following:

- Once council is satisfied that the bins have been delivered to the property, charges will be added on the rates account for the property.
- Charges will cease upon the service being canceled by the property owner and Council has collected the bins.
- Council will charge your rate account for the service irrespective of whether you place your bin out for collection or not. Refunds for periodic non-use of the service are not permitted.
- Should collection be missed due to operational issues, refunds will not be provided, however Council will make best endeavours to offer a catch-up service upon request.
- By agreeing to these conditions of service, you agree to only use the bin for its intended purpose as advertised by Logan City Council. Failure to do this could result in the removal of the bin without refund.

Customer declaration

I hereby apply for the additional waste service and declare that the particulars contained in my application are correct in every detail. If I submit this application electronically to Logan City Council, I agree it has the same status as if it were signed.

Privacy collection notice: Logan City Council collects your personal information for the purpose of assessing and processing an application for additional waste and recycling bins submitted by residential ratepayers. The collection of this information is necessary to determine eligibility and to facilitate the provision of the requested services.
